

Privacy Statement

This Privacy Statement informs users of the DietMaster Go website and the DietMaster Go iPhone application about how ("DietMaster Go" or "we") gathers and uses personal information submitted to DietMaster Go and aggregated information collected from the DietMaster Go website or via the DietMaster Go iPhone application.

Collection of personal information If you use the DietMaster Go iPhone application, you may enter data into the application running locally on your iPhone, in order to set, track and manage your diet and exercise goals. This data may include your birth date, your height and weight, your gender, and specific details of the foods and drinks that you consume and the exercise you do. If you do not subscribe to DietMaster Go or create an account at the DietMaster Go website, your Personal data will remain on your iPhone and we will have no access to it.

If you subscribe to DietMaster Go, you will be asked to provide your email address and to select a password. Subscribing to DietMaster Go will automatically create an account at the DietMaster Go website under your email address and password, and your Personal data will automatically be synced to your website account. If you create an account at the DietMaster Go website, you will be asked to provide an email address and password, and you may enter Personal data into the website.

In addition to the above personal information, we collect standard information about DietMaster Go users such as IP addresses, browser type, operating system, pages visited on our site, referring and exit pages, and the dates and times of the visits. This site visitation data is used to administer the site and provide general statistics regarding the use of DietMaster Go. Site visitation data is never linked to your personal information, and we do not use it to identify you individually.

Use of personal information We will treat your Personal data as confidential, and we will not share your personal information or Personal data with third parties without your permission, except in the limited circumstances described below.

We will use the personal information you give us to fulfill the services and products you request from us. This may include billing and shipping of products that you order, sending information that you have requested, or contacting you about products and services that you have purchased. In some circumstances we may use third party contractors to perform these services on our behalf. In such circumstances, we will only provide the contractor with the information needed to perform the services (for example, name and address if a contractor is delivering a product to you), and all contractors will be required to agree to confidentiality obligations with respect to your personal, non-public information.

If you do not opt-out of communications from DietMaster Go, we may send you marketing notices including promotions of our products and services. You can opt-out of communications from DietMaster Go at any time (see control of personal information below).

We may disclose your personal information when we reasonably believe that it is required by a law or legal process and to protect and defend the rights and interests of DietMaster Go, its affiliates, suppliers, or users. In the event DietMaster Go goes through a business transition, such as a merger, being acquired by another company, or selling a portion of its assets, users' personal information and Personal data will, in most instances, be part of the assets transferred. We may use and disclose personal data, in a form that does not identify any individual, to allow DietMaster Go and our advertisers to present targeted advertising to you. We may disclose to third parties, including advertisers and potential business partners, aggregated statistics that we develop from Personal data. For example, we may disclose the total number of pounds lost by all DietMaster Go users, the average weight loss of DietMaster Go users, or generalized information about diet and exercise habits based on aggregated statistics developed from Personal data. This statistical information will not identify any individual. Control of personal information

You can confirm, change, or update personal information you have provided to us by contacting us directly at sales@dietmastersoftware.com with your request. If you want to opt-out of communications from DietMaster Go, you can do so by emailing your request to sales@dietmastersoftware.com. If you change your mind, you can opt-in again, by emailing this same address. When you opt-out of promotional communications from us, you may still receive service messages (such as an order confirmation) and legally mandated notices.

Security of the information we collect We use a range of technologies and procedures to protect your personal information. For example, we store personal information and Personal data Information in a secure, limited access facility, and we use industry-standard firewalls and security software design to protect the security and integrity of your Personal data Information.

Protection of children's privacy DietMaster Go is a general interest website, and we do not knowingly collect any personal information from children. If you are under 18, you are not permitted to use this product.

Use of cookies and tracking technology When you visit our site, a cookie may be saved on your computer (if your computer accepts cookies), and if you return to the site the cookie may be read. We use cookies to help us collect the site visitation data described above and in some cases to deliver specialized content. Cookies are not linked to your personal information.

We may also use web beacons, clear gif technology, or action tags as mechanisms to collect aggregate site visitation data by tracking how users navigate to and through our website. We may also use this technology to track the delivery of HTML email messages. Data collected through this mechanism is not linked to personal information.

In addition, if you are using the iPhone application only, DietMaster Go or our partners may use analytics technology to track anonymous traffic data about use of the application. This data does not include your personal data.

Some of the analytics technology described in this section is provided to us by Google, Inc ("Google"). Under the Google Analytics Terms of Service, Google and its subsidiaries have the right to retain and use the anonymous traffic data collected by the Google Analytics service from users of this website or the DietMaster Go Go iPhone application. Google's use of such data is subject to the Google Privacy Policy located at <http://www.google.com/privacy.html>. Enforcement of this statement

If you have questions about the policies described in this statement, please email us directly at sales@dietmastersoftware.com. Links to other websites Our website may contain links to other websites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of these other sites, and we encourage you to review the policies of each site you use.

Changes to this statement We may from time to time update this privacy statement. When we make these updates, we will change the "last updated" date listed below. If we make a major change to this statement, we will update users by placing a more prominent notice on our home page. Your use of DietMaster Go after an updated privacy statement becomes effective will indicate your acceptance.

Users from outside the United States DietMaster Go and the DietMaster Go servers are located in the United States and are subject to the applicable state and federal laws of the United States. If you use DietMaster Go, you consent to the use and disclosure of information in accordance with this privacy statement and subject to such laws. Contact information
